

Key vocabulary

|           |                                                            |
|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------|
| animate   | make something move                                        |
| animation | a series of images that are made to look like their moving |
| frame     | one still image                                            |
| motion    | movement                                                   |

online safety

Key knowledge

Animation is the process of making still images appear to be moving and this can be done through different apps

Stop-motion animation is the process of moving models in small steps and recording photos of each step to make frames. Putting these frames together will make an animation which looks like it's moving

