

Ancient Greece

Ancient Greece was made up of lots of city-states, like Athens and Sparta.

These had their own government and identity.

Democracy

- The city-state of Athens developed democracy, a system of government where lots of people have a say in how the place is run.
- Women and people who were not citizens could not participate.
- Not all city-states in Greece had a democracy.

Architecture

Knowledge

- Ancient Greeks developed lots of new ideas in science (like the scientific method), language (like an alphabet and words that we use in English today), mathematics and medicine.
- The ancient Greeks learnt from and built on other people's ideas, particularly from ancient Sumer (Asia) and Egypt (Africa).

Gods, goddesses and myths

- Ancient Greeks believed in lots of gods who were each responsible for something. For example, Zeus was king of the gods, Hera was his wife, Hades was god of the underworld, Demeter was goddess of the harvest, Athena was goddess of wisdom and war, Herakles was a strong demi-god.
- Greeks wrote myths about the gods and goddesses. These have given the English language some words and given us traditions like the Olympic games.

Ancient Greece

Democracy

- The city-state of Athens developed democracy.
- Democracy is a system of government where lots of people have a say in how the place is run.
- Women could not vote.

Knowledge

- Ancient Greeks developed lots of new ideas like an alphabet and words that we use in English today.
- The ancient Greeks learnt from and built on other people's ideas, including from ancient Egypt (Africa).

Map of
Ancient Greece

Gods, goddesses and myths

- Ancient Greeks believed in lots of gods who were each responsible for something.
- Zeus was king of the gods.
- Greeks wrote myths about the gods and goddesses.

Ancient Greece

Timeline and map (Lesson 1)

Ancient Greece was made up of lots of city-states, like Athens and Sparta.

These had their own government and identity.

Democracy (Lesson 2)

- The city-state of Athens developed democracy, a system of government where lots of people have a say in how the place is run.
- Women and people who were not citizens could not participate.
- Not all city-states in Greece had a democracy.

Architecture (Lesson 3)

Gods, goddesses and myths (Lesson 4)

- Ancient Greeks believed in lots of gods who were each responsible for something. For example, Zeus was king of the gods, Hera was his wife, Hades was god of the underworld, Demeter was goddess of the harvest, Athena was goddess of wisdom and war, Herakles was a strong demi-god.
- Greeks wrote myths about the gods and goddesses. These have given the English language some words and given us traditions like the Olympic games.

Knowledge (Lesson 5)

- Ancient Greeks developed lots of new ideas in science (like the scientific method), language (like an alphabet and words that we use in English today), mathematics and medicine.
- The ancient Greeks learnt from and built on other people's ideas, particularly from ancient Sumer (Asia) and Egypt (Africa).

Ancient Greece

Timeline and map (Lesson 1)

Democracy (Lesson 2)

- The city-state of Athens developed _____, a system of government where lots of people have a say in how the place is run.
- Women and people who were not _____ could not participate.
- Not all _____ in Greece had a democracy.

Architecture (Lesson 3)

Ancient Greece was made up of lots of _____, like Athens and Sparta. These had their own government and identity.

Gods, goddesses and myths (Lesson 4)

- Ancient Greeks believed in lots of gods who were each responsible for something. For example, _____ was king of the gods, Hera was his wife, Hades was god of the _____, Demeter was goddess of the _____, Athena was goddess of wisdom and _____, Herakles was a strong demi-god.
- Greeks wrote _____ about the gods and goddesses. These have given the English language some words and given us traditions like the _____ games.

Knowledge (Lesson 5)

- Ancient Greeks developed lots of new ideas in science (like the scientific _____), language (like an alphabet and words that we use in English today), mathematics and medicine.
- The ancient Greeks learnt from and built on other people's ideas, particularly from ancient Sumer (Asia) and Egypt (_____).

